

Terre des Anges Provence Rose `Chateau Paradis` 2022

Region

The appellation of Côtes de Provence covers a wide swathe of land from Aix east to Cannes. Although much of the production is of dry rosé wine made from Cinsault, Carignan, Syrah and Cabernet Sauvignon, it does also cover red and white wines. Provence has a warm Mediterranean climate with adequate rainfall and the cold Mistral wind provides cooling influence but the best sites are usually sheltered.

Producer

The Château Paradis estate covers 185 acres in the northern part of Coteaux d'Aix-en-Provence, in the village of Le Puy Sainte Réparate. The estate is in the midst of a range of legendary landscapes, which the famous painters of Provence used to depict. An old plot of vines called "Paradis" gave its name to the vineyard. The property became a winery in 2003 thanks to Philippe and Juliette Deschamps, who built a cellar and restored the bastide. Since 2011 the Thiéblin family, proud of their Provençal heritage, has been focused on bringing out the best in the estate. New vineyard plantings and cellar investment have ensured the quality of the wines. Currently the estate is in conversion to organic viticulture for its 2023 vintage.

Tasting Notes

Aix-en-Provence and its surrounding hills are home to many fantastic producers of rose wines. Made from a traditional blend of Syrah, Mourvedre and Rolle (Vermentino) the grapes are hand harvested and cooled before pressing to preserve aromas and colour. Terre des Anges is a luxurious and elegant rose, partial wood fermentation on the Mourvedre gives texture and richness which is balanced by a fresh acidity and ripe fruit flavours of strawberries, red cherries and peach.

Food

perfect with caesar or nicoise salads, pan fried salmon and charcuterie boards.
