

Château D'Esclans Estate Rosé, Cotes de Provence 2022

Producer

Sacha Lichine is a man of pedigree. His father, of Russian descent, and American mother, had built their wealth and reputation with a Bordeaux business which included Chateaux Prieurie Lichine and Lascombes in Margaux. Sacha Lichine has continued with the family tradition for innovation, by drawing on his wide experience of winemaking and his keen understanding of consumer needs a range of contemporary Mediterranean wines with the 'chicken' labels, whose fruit forward style makes them immediately enjoyable. They are southern French with a distinct New World accent.

Tasting Notes

Château d'Esclans is the estate wine made from a blend of varieties Grenache Noir, Rolle, Clairette and Tibouren. An extremely pale rosé colour. The nose has predominantly floral notes accompanied by light red berries. The palate is smooth and creamy due to part of the wine spending time in oak adding some richness. The wine shows an elegant balance between fresh light fruit and acidity for sophisticated rosé.

Food

Pairs wonderfully with an array of dishes such as ratatouille, waldorf salad, goats cheese, beef carpaccio, quiche lorraine, a chicken dish with tomatoes and olives, lemon risotto.
