

Meursault Les Grand Charrons, Domaine Michel Bouzereau 2020

Region

Côte d'Or stretches from Dijon in the north to Santenay in the south, via Beaune. The wines produced here are more complex, more expensive and more lasting than elsewhere in Burgundy. They come from famous villages such as Vosne Romanee, Pommard, Volnay, Meursault and Puligny Montrachet. The region is divided into two parts, Côte de Nuits to the north and Cote de Beaune to the south. The first produces almost exclusively red wines, the second both red and whites. Cote d'Or takes its name from the Orient; the vines face east to make the most of limited sunlight.

Producer

The domaine is in the village of Meursault, and Michel Bouzereau's son, Jean-Baptiste, took over in 1999 and is in charge of making the seventeen wines from the 18 hectare estate. He has respected his father's more traditional practices but has instilled a fresher, livelier element to the wines, which only enhances their appeal.

Tasting Notes

This distinguished grower creates rich and voluptuous Meursault, exotic with the bouquet of toasted hazelnuts, orange blossom and butterscotch yet it is elegant and deeply complex. There is a captivating palate of white fruits with sublime honeyed richness with a hint of toasted oak and freshness on the finish.

Food

Will accompany a wide variety of seafood dishes including BBQ'd lobster, garlic prawns, poultry and summer salads.
