

Saint Romain Domaine Philippe Bouzereau 2020

Region

Côte d'Or stretches from Dijon in the north to Santenay in the south, via Beaune. The wines produced here are more complex, more expensive and more lasting than elsewhere in Burgundy. They come from famous villages such as Vosne Romanee, Pommard, Volnay, Meursault and Puligny Montrachet. The region is divided into two parts, Côte de Nuits to the north and Cote de Beaune to the south. The first produces almost exclusively red wines, the second both red and whites. Cote d'Or takes its name from the Orient; the vines face east to make the most of limited sunlight.

Producer

Located in the village of Saint Romain, their 13 hectares of vines are spread across the appellations of Sant Romain, Auxey Duresses, Meursault and Pommard. The domaine is now in the hands of 3rd generation vignerons.

Tasting Notes

The spectacular hillside town of Saint-Romain lies to the west of Meursault and Auxey Duresses in the Côte de Beaune. The surrounding vineyard sits on clay, flint and limestone soils ideally suited to Chardonnay. This pure ripe Chardonnay has a hint of butterscotch and oak spice from a small element of barrel age. It retains an alluring nutty aroma and rounded creamy texture.

Food

Perfect with cold and simply grilled seafood or creamy pasta dishes.
