

Saint Aubin 1er Cru `Chateniere` Dom. Vincent Girardin 2018

Region

Côte d'Or stretches from Dijon in the north to Santenay in the south, via Beaune. The wines produced here are more complex, more expensive and more lasting than elsewhere in Burgundy. They come from famous villages such as Vosne Romanee, Pommard, Volnay, Meursault and Puligny Montrachet. The region is divided into two parts, Côte de Nuits to the north and Cote de Beaune to the south. The first produces almost exclusively red wines, the second both red and whites. Cote d'Or takes its name from the Orient; the vines face east to make the most of limited sunlight.

Producer

Vincent Girardin has firmly established himself as one of Burgundy's pre-eminent wine producers. His 15 hectares of Domaine owned vineyard represent 25 different Burgundy appellations, all treated with the same meticulous attention. One of the leading modern winemakers, using appropriate enhancement of new oak whilst emphasising the unique character of each appellation.

Tasting Notes

Saint Aubin is located in the Côte de Beaune and includes clay and limestone soils that overlook Puligny and produce the best 1er Crus of the appellation. Vincent Girardin makes intense well-flavoured Chardonnays from `en Remilly`, with emphasis on richness, mineral character and the toasty aromas of new oak.

Food

Will combine well with sea and river fish, creamy risottos, chicken and guinea fowl.
