

Champagne Perrier Jouët Grand Brut N.V.

Producer

Perrier Jouët carefully selects grapes from between 35 to 40 crus in the heart of the most prestigious sites in the Champagne region for its Champagnes. Perrier Jouët owns more than 161 acres in Ay, Verzenay, Avize and especially Cramant. The slope of the famous Côte des Blancs, is without a doubt the finest vineyard area in the Champagne district as it grows the best Chardonnay grapes. Perrier Jouët was in fact the first Champagne house to recognize the special merit of Chardonnay and, soon after it was founded, purchased a number of Chardonnay vineyards of unique merit. In the Cramant region alone, Perrier Jouët possesses more than 99 acres with a majority of holdings in 99% to 100% rated areas, providing 40% of the grapes used in Grand Brut, and the rest are supplied by some of the best producers in the region with whom Perrier Jouët has developed special relationships.

Tasting Notes

This Grand Marque house is right on song and displays lovely aromas and flavours of tropical fruit. A full citrus, spice and yeast fruit flavour dominate the front palate followed by elegance, complexity. Overall this has a fine, persistent mousse followed by lingering flavours of fresh apples and lemons. A delightfully crisp and balanced Champagne.

Food

This Champagne pairs well with cray fish, game birds or duck, delicate Japanese fish dishes or risotto.
